

Tennessee Advocacy Services

Numerous agencies and organizations provide support, information, training, and assistance in advocating for individuals with disabilities in Tennessee. The following are a few of these organizations that provide services at no cost. A more extensive list of service organizations can be accessed via Tennessee Disability Pathfinder at www.tnpathfinder.org.

Disability Rights in Tennessee

(800) 342-1660

Email: GetHelp@disabilityrightstn.org

Tennessee Voices for Children

(800) 670-9882

Email: info@tnvoices.org

TNSTEP, Tennessee's Parent and Youth Training & Information Center

(800) 280-7837 (English)

(800) 975-2919 (Spanish)

Email: gethelp@tnstep.info

The Arc of Tennessee

(800) 835-7077

Email: info@thearctn.org

Free and Low-Cost Legal Services

The following is a list of offices in Tennessee that offer free or low-cost legal services to support individuals with disabilities.

Disability Rights in Tennessee

(800) 342-1660

Website: www.disabilityrightstn.org

Memphis Area Legal Services, Inc.

(901) 523-8822

Website: malsi.org/

Legal Aid of East Tennessee

(865) 637-0484

Website: www.laet.org

Vanderbilt Legal Clinic

615-322-2615

Website: law.vanderbilt.edu

Legal Aid Society of Middle Tennessee and the Cumberland

800-238-1443

Website: www.las.org

West Tennessee Legal Services

800-372-8346

Website: www.wtls.org

The Tennessee Alliance for Legal Services' (TALS) web portal, www.Help4TN.org, and a toll-free hotline at 888-HELP4TN (888-395-9297) both offer information and access to referrals and legal advice. Additionally, TN Free Legal Answers matches individuals with volunteer attorneys.

For Military Families

The following connects eligible, active duty servicemembers with pro bono attorneys to assist with civil legal issues, including guardianship and special education.

ABA Military Pro Bono Project

www.militaryprobono.org

To locate the nearest Tennessee military legal assistance office, visit legalassistance.law.af.mil